

COMPILES LIST OF BOOKS FOR SUMMER

A list of books for summer reading has been prepared by Miss Marilla W. Freeman, librarian of the Goodwyn Instillute library and beside the subjects represented in the list below, Goodwyn Institute library has many new books on agriculture, business and technical subjects. There are also new books of as "Mrs. Allen's Book of Meat Substitutes," and Miss Fairfax Proudit's "Dieteties for Nurses."

After June 22 the library will be closed at 6 p. m. daily for the summer months. During the hot summer days the Goodwyn Institute library reading room is one of the coolest and most attractive places in the city for a morning or afternoon of reading and study.

All the volumes listed below may be found on the new book shelf of Goodwyn Institute library. Others are being added daily. They may be looked over in the library or if necessary taken

MORE CATTLE SHIPPED.

BLUE MOUNTAIN. Miss., Jun 15. (Spl.)—W. R. Alvis, who handles most of the hogs and cuttle shipped from Tippah, has just dispatched another carload of cattle from the county, live stock dealers, as a rule, however, are holding their awine and other kinds service in France, has returned flome of live stock for subsequent shipment, finding it more lucrative to keep them for a while on the excellent pastures, especially since the market prices are somewhat less than usual of late. Plenty of hogs and cattle are accumulating in the dealers' hands and will be placed on the market at the psychological moment.

BABY WEEK ENDS.

GREENWOOD, Miss., June 16 (Spl.)

Baby welfare week closed at noon Friday, scoring a great success in its special line. Miss Wilhe Brougher, the baby specialist nurse, felt gratified in this important work, and the business-like and systematic manner in which the ladies who assisted her handled the situation. She thinks that Greenwood is in a fair way to secure a baby welfare station with a regular nurse in charge.

BOLL WEEVIL SHOWS UP.

BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss, June 1s. (Spl.)—The boll weevil has made its appearance already in some sections of Tippah county. With plenty of hot, dry weather, however, for the next few weeks, farmers are hopeful of outstripping the progress of the peat, though the lateness of the cotton, due to wet weather, makes the outlook unpromising for the securing of a weevil-free crop of cotton.
